Inspiration:Alien3, Ripley's final fight against the monster inside her, Aliens, the poor woman infected and about to go boom, Alien, Kane's infection and demise.

We see Kyra on falling to her knees, she's clutching her head. We see the virus literally moving under her skin. Kyra looks up and we see her eyes, something moving in her retina, a darkening of the iris, a cloud of blood blossoming and filling her eyes.

We zoom out and see Kyra writhing on the ground, her skin is darkening. We see the scientist who injected her standing to the side.

Scientist

A violent reaction. Don't worry. You'll soon be one of us. Tell me... how does it feel to be one? We have forgotten... it was such along time ago.

Kyra is on her knees now, her skin is returning to a lighter shade and we can see in her eyes that the cloud is retracting.

Scientist

Most remarkable. You seem somewhat immune.

Kyra

Through gritted teeth, pained

I can feel it... moving... in me. What did you do to me?!

Scientist

We have made you one of us. It's just a matter of time. But it can be speeded up. We will inject you again.

We see the scientist closing in on Kyra
